
Title: Prayer book

Author: Bartholomew

Prayer of Devotion to the Virtues

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We live our lives walking similar paths That intertwine in the single path
The lighted path of Virtue

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We choose our actions by their guide Giving a harmony of Virtuous acts Leading to a Balance of
the Virtues

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We seek others who will walk with us Along the path of warming light
The warming light of the Virtues

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We wish to share the inner peace
An inner peace derived from Virtue
A Virtuous and warming tranquility

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We find for life a depth of meaning
A Virtuous meaning that gives us strength
The strength we need to follow Virtue

Linked by our devotion to
the Virtues
We immerse ourselves in Virtue's Light
Allowing us to be People of Light
And become the Lightbringers of Virtue

Prayer from the Inner Core

Deep within there is a place
A place that defines who we are
That central place that gives us strength
The strength that guides our feet to step Our feet to step upon our path
The path that's chosen by our source That source that comes from that place

For some that place holds a void
A void that takes from who they are
And has them take from those they know
With every touch it takes some more Spreading out to increase the void Including more within its grasp Voiding all that's in that place

For some that place is simply numb Simply numb and caring not No care nor hope nor vision true Lifeless, silent through and through Unaffected by daily trials Treading onward in a stupor Feeling nothing from that place

For some that place is full of chaos

Chaotic swirling without a meaning Giving to treading random paths Paths leading them nowhere fast Leaving behind a broken trail With broken lives and broken promises Swirling randomly from that place

For some that place is lined in order Ordered forth in straightened lines Going straight while never swerving Never varied to either side Treading on despite all else Ignoring every choice that's given Ordered straight from within that place

For some that place is filled of Virtue Virtue that wisely guides their steps Moving forward upon their path
A path that knows when to swerve To swerve and find all that's true And guide us with a blinding light Radiating Virtue from
that place

Spirituality Prayer

Spirituality is the wellspring that resides in our souls Deep in our under mind is the home for our spirituality Lying there hidden from our daily turmoil, it waits It waits to be the source of all the other Virtues

When Spirituality reaches out and strokes our thinking

It will activate our searches into what we know as Honesty

Shining a light that removes the shadows of the lies

Then continues until the lies themselves crumble in its light

When Spirituality reaches

out and tightens our muscles

It will activate our strength into what we know as Valor

Taught with power to defeat any trembling of cowardice

Then continues until the cowardice falters before its strength

When Spirituality reaches

out and caresses our heart

It will activate the affections we know as

Compassion

Glowing warm it chases away the chilling of hate

Then continues until the hate retreats before its warmth

When Spirituality reaches

out and grips our gut

It will activate our giving that we know as

Sacrifice

Churning with bile it dissolves our greed

Then continues until the greed transforms to giving

When Spirituality reaches

out and focuses our eyes

It will activate our fairness we know as

Justice

Focusing with sharp clarity it isolates all wrongs

Then continues until the wrongs are completely dissolved

When Spirituality reaches out and courses with our blood
It will activate a shining glow that we know as Honor Surging and pulsating that drives away the shame
Then continues until the shame is washed away

When Spirituality reaches
out and fills our void
It will activate our modesty we know as Humility
Welling up to leave little room for pride
Then continues until the pride is pushed aside

Spirituality reaches out to all the Virtues Touching each within our life Setting forth our feet to tread Carefully on the narrow
path

Prayer That Comes From Virtue

Leader: May our leaders be known by their Honesty. May they govern with insight

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May our protectors be known by their Valor. May they be filled with strength

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May our
adjudicators be known by their Justice. May they find perception

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May our holy men
be known by their Spirituality. May they have purity

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May our friends
be known by their Compassion. May they be filled with warmth

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May our royalty
be known by their Humility. May they reign with selflessness

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May our city guards be known by their Honor. May they give us respect

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May those of ultimate power be known by their Sacrifice. May they know generosity

Cong: That comes from Virtue.

Leader: May we all be known by our Virtuous deeds. May we find order

Cong: That comes from Virtue.